

In the Indiana Supreme Court

In the Matter of: Curtis T. Hill, Jr.,
Respondent

Supreme Court Case No.
19S-DI-156

Order

Charles M. Kidd, Acting Executive Director of the Disciplinary Commission of the Indiana Supreme Court, pursuant to Admission and Discipline Rule 23(21), has filed the Commission's Itemized Statement of Expenses allocable in connection with the above-captioned matter. On September 29, 2020, we issued an order taking the matter under advisement and inviting further briefing, which the parties have provided.

Being duly advised, the Court now finds that one-third of the expenses in this matter should be taxed to Respondent, Curtis T. Hill, Jr.

Respondent is therefore ORDERED to pay $19,068.54 by check made payable to the Clerk of the Indiana Supreme Court and transmitted to the following address:

Roll of Attorneys Administrator
Office of the Clerk of the Indiana Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, and Tax Court
402 West Washington Street, Room W062
Indianapolis, Indiana 46204

Upon receipt, the Clerk is directed to disburse those funds as follows: (1) $2,737.66, payable to the Commission as reimbursement for investigative expenses incurred; (2) $83.33, payable to the Clerk for court costs; and (3) $16,247.55, payable to the Indiana Supreme Court as reimbursement for hearing officer expenses incurred.

Done at Indianapolis, Indiana, on 11/20/2020.
